We'll be asking questions to our panelists and have a dedicated time for Q&A at the end.

Feel free to ask a question in the Q&A at any point

Who Are We?

Hello, we're Xello!

Our company provides software that helps students become career and future-ready.

What started out as a small 3-person company, has grown to a 150+ team all focussed on creating a world class careers program.

Today, Xello supports over 10 million students worldwide.

Our program is used to help all students, regardless of background, ability or pathway, build personalised plans to help them reach their full academic potential and achieve future success.

What we are talking about today

- 2020 - a year of change and unpredictability
- The impact and how our sector has adapted
- Crucial support and the future

Meet Your Panelists

Karin Smith

ACADEMIC CONSULTANT, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, WISCONSIN.

Reno Palombit

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST,
JOHNSTON COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN NORTH CAROLINA

Sophie Hope

GMACS PROGRAMME LEAD, GREATER MANCHESTER COMBINED AUTHORITY

Tell us how you, your organisation or colleagues ensured continuity of your careers/technical education programme during lockdown?

What did you find was the most challenging aspect of keeping students engaged in careers whilst at home?

What impact do you think the pandemic has had on the way that careers education is viewed across the wider education community in your region? If at all?

Moving forwards, are there learnings from this year or new ways of working that you as a programme leader will continue to do more of?

As we enter the new academic year, there is a lot of uncertainty for students, how are you or your organisation ensuring that careers advisors/counsellors are trained and aware of the changing landscape?

Before we open up for questions, do you have any final advice or comments you'd like to share?
